First Reading (Isaiah 5:1-7)

Isaiah is a prophet of great vision and much hope. He is able to foresee peace and justice despite the chaos around him. However, as a prophet he has a duty to warn the people of God's expectations and their responsibilities.

Second Reading (Philippians (4:6-9))

Echoes of Isaiah, the prophet of peace, are evident here. Despite chaos all shall be well. St Paul reassures the Philippians, and us, that no matter how difficult and challenging life is, there is no need to worry.

Gospel Reading (Matthew 21: 33-43)

'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be given to people who will produce its fruit.' God is not a puppeteer and we are no puppets. What God has given is for us to use freely and prudently. The most precious gift is life. It is a life to be cultivated to the full. It is to yield a rich harvest. It is to bear much fruit; good fruit. We are entrusted with the responsibility of making the best of what God has given us. God shows great trust in us. There is no policing of our actions. Hence, this parable. We, too, can act out of self-righteousness and with the pretention of gods. Like the tenants of today's gospel, we start acting above our station.

CAFOD Family Fast Day Collection after all Masses today.

Fr. Delaney's Diamond Jubilee

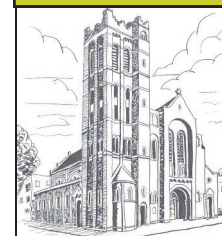

Fr Christopher Delaney is celebrating his Diamond Jubilee(60 Years) this month and will be coming to St Mary's to celebrate the occasion with Masses at 10am and 6pm on Sunday 15th October. It will be a wonderful time to welcome him back to the parish where he spent so many years ministering to the people of Cardiff.

Mary Immaculate Admissions 2018

Mary Immaculate High School is holding an opening evening on Thursday next from 5pm for parents of Year 6 and 5 pupils.. Mr Powell will give a short talk at 5.15 and 6.15. The school is excellent with green categorisation. Admissions for high school opened on Monday 2nd October and close on Monday 4th December.. You must complete the green application form and return it to the school. If your child has been baptised and/or you have a letter from a religious leader you must send it in with the application. Failure to do so could have an impact on your application.

Piety Stall St. Mary's.

I placed an order for cards and some small items including a selection of cards to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee to the priesthood but, as the choice was very limited, I included an order for cards without specific wording so that personal wishes may be written. These and other items will be available for sale today.

I am always happy to source other items that parishioners need. Please ask if you are looking for something special. Dot Howells

MacMillan Coffee Morning

St Mary's 'Wives' will be holding a coffee morning today after the 10am Mass. Cakes, tea, coffee, etc will be on sale. All are welcome.

St. Mary's Reception & Nursery 2018

The window for applications for Reception 2018 will open on November 13th. St. Mary's Headteacher is holding an open morning for parents considering enrolling their child in Nursery or Reception class next year on Thursday 9th November between 9.30 and 11am. This will give parents an opportunity to look around the Foundation Phase part of the school and speak to the staff.

Reredos

Already the lower part of the reredos is showing up beautifully. The scaffolding will be erected tomorrow Monday. The whole work should be completed by the first week of November. Thank you for your patience.
