

I would be grateful if the collectors could count and record all those in the congregation at all Sunday Masses during October. Many thanks.

First Reading (Isaiah 25:6-10)

In the biblical world, banquets had eschatological significance. The meal to which Isaiah is alluding on Mount Zion recalls an earlier meal on Mount Sinai that ratified the covenant between God and the freed slaves from Egypt. It marks transition from death to life, from slavery to freedom.

Second Reading (Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20)

Even though Paul is chained and restricted, he is rejoicing that he has found the Lord. Jesus is his life. Therefore, he is able to be content and full of joy. He wants us, and the Church of Philippi, to be the same in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading (Matthew 22: 1-14)

The conversation and debate continues with the chief priests and the elders. Jesus has to contend with cynicism, anger and rejection from the leaders of the time. Their insecurity is palpable. A new invitation is issued to them through the incarnation. This is an invite to the wedding of God with us. Going to the crossroads is a metaphor for going out to the whole world to proclaim the Good News. Very appropriate in this Mission Month of October.

Mission Appeal There will be an appeal on behalf of the Verona Fathers next weekend 21st/22nd October.

All parishioners, newcomers and visitors are very welcome to visit St Mary's Parish Hall for a cup of tea or coffee after 10am Mass today.

Piety Stall St. Mary's.

I placed an order for cards and some small items including a selection of cards to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee to the priesthood but, as the choice was very limited, I included an order for cards without specific wording so that personal wishes may be written. These and other items will be available for sale today.

I am always happy to source other items that parishioners need. Please ask if you are looking for something special. Dot Howells
