Gospel	895

First Reading (Isaiah 49:1-6) Here we find the second song of God's servant. The people who are speaking in these verses are the Judean exiles in Babylon. This is not a lamentation but rather a thanksgiving to God who has chosen them, in a very special way, for a unique mission. From that moment on, the dream of a final gathering of the whole people of God enters the Bible. Later the gospel will announce that this goal will be achieved in and through Jesus Christ.

Second Reading (Acts 13:22-26) This passage highlights the importance of two biblical figures, David and John the Baptist. The most important point the author of Acts wants to make is that it was David who established the royal dynasty from which came the Messiah. When the appointed time came God continued to prepare the world for the coming of this Messiah, through the preaching of John the Baptist.

Gospel Reading (John 20:1-9) This passage from Luke's Gospel reminds us that what is important in salvation history is not what is spectacular. The gospel prefers to draw our attention to life-filled events as in the account of the birth of John the Baptist. In many traditional cultures, and even today, the act of naming a child is viewed as giving a child its identity. The communal character of the culture at the time of John's birth is evident. The neighbours and relatives, as well as the parents, have a role in naming the child. This cohort felt the child should be called after his father Zechariah but the boy's parents both insist he will be called John, a name which means 'God is gracious'.

All parishioners, newcomers and visitors are very welcome to visit St Mary's Parish Hall for a cup of tea or coffee after 10am Mass today.

Sunday Mass for the Housebound

A few people have suggested that there should be a way of streaming Masses to the housebound of the parish. At the moment there are discussions taking place to set up this facility. However it will require a computer or ipad to receive the transmission. The setting up of the facility will cost around £3000 plus vat with £1200 as a yearly cost. Any help to get this started and to maintain this venture will be much appreciated. Thank you

Mass Intentions

It is an ancient tradition to have a Mass celebrated for our deceased relatives or friends, for someone who is sick, or in gratitude for help received. It is usual in requesting such a Mass to give a small stipend (donation); this goes directly for the support of the priest who celebrates the requested Mass. If you wish to have a Mass dedicated please write 1) name of intention (2) date required on a slip of paper, put your stipend into an envelope and hand it into the Priory. We will try to facilitate the date required but priority must be given to funerals and weddings.

Please request a Mass intention as far ahead as possible as it is very difficult to accommodate requests at short notice. Thank you for your understanding!
