Easter Greetings

On behalf of Fr.Nicholas, Fr.John, Deacon Maurice, Deacon Christian and myself may I extend our warmest greetings as we celebrate Easter 2021. We recall how last year we were unable to assemble for the Liturgies of the Sacred Triduum and this year we have rejoiced all the more in having access to our churches. May the power and glory of Our Lord's Resurrection fill our hearts with joy and bestow many blessings upon our families. We remain so very conscious of the pain and suffering imposed by the pandemic over the past year. As a result of the very successful vaccination programme, we can look forward to our own emergence from the current lock-down over the coming weeks. We pray for our brothers and sisters across the world who are not as fortunate as ourselves in facing the enduring threats from the virus. We commit ourselves to the moral and practical demands of solidarity, for none are truly protected until all are protected.

Shorter Form of the Easter Proclamation

Exult, let them exult, the hosts of heaven, exult, let Angel ministers of God exult, let the trumpet of salvation sound aloud our mighty King's triumph!
Be glad, let earth be glad, as glory floods her,
ablaze with light from her eternal King, let all corners of the earth be glad,
knowing an end to gloom and darkness.
Rejoice, let Mother Church also rejoice, arrayed with the lightning of his glory,
let this holy building shake with joy,
filled with the mighty voices of the peoples.

V. The Lord be with you.
R. And with your spirit.)

V. Lift up your hearts.
R. We lift them up to the Lord.

V. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
R. It is right and just.

It is truly right and just,
with ardent love of mind and heart and with devoted service of our voice, to acclaim our God invisible, the almighty Father,
and Jesus Christ, our Lord, his Son,
his Only Begotten.

Who for our sake paid Adam's debt
to the eternal Father,
and, pouring out his own dear Blood, wiped clean the record of our ancient sinfulness.

These then are the feasts of Passover,
in which is slain the Lamb, the one true Lamb,
whose Blood anoints the doorposts of believers.

This is the night,
when once you led our forebears, Israel's children,
from slavery in Egypt and made them pass dry-shod through the Red Sea.

This is the night
that with a pillar of fire banished the darkness of sin.

This is the night
that even now, throughout the world, sets Christian believers apart from worldly vices
and from the gloom of sin, leading them to grace
and joining them to his holy ones.

This is the night,
when Christ broke the prison-bars of death and rose victorious from the underworld.

O wonder of your humble care for us!
O love, O charity beyond all telling,
to ransom a slave you gave away your Son!

O truly necessary sin of Adam, destroyed completely by the Death of Christ!

O happy fault
that earned so great, so glorious a Redeemer!
The sanctifying power of this night
dispels wickedness, washes faults away, restores innocence to the fallen, and joy to mourners.

O truly blessed night,
when things of heaven are wedded to those of earth,
and divine to the human.

On this, your night of grace, O holy Father, accept this candle, a solemn offering,
the work of bees and of your servants' hands,
an evening sacrifice of praise,
this gift from your most holy Church

Therefore, O Lord,
we pray you that this candle,
hallowed to the honour of your name,
may persevere undimmed,
to overcome the darkness of this night.

Receive it as a pleasing fragrance,
and let it mingle with the lights of heaven.
May this flame be found still burning
by the Morning Star:
the one Morning Star who never sets, Christ your Son,
who, coming back from death's domain,
has shed his peaceful light on humanity,
and lives and reigns for ever and ever.
R. Amen.

THE EASTER VIGIL.

The Paschal Candle is inscribed, lit and elevated.
Christ Yesterday and Today; the Beginning and the End; the Alpha; and the Omega.
All time belongs to him; and all the ages.
To him be glory and power; through every age and for ever. Amen.

LUMEN CHRISTI – DEO GRATIAS / THE LIGHT OF CHRIST –
THANKS BE TO GOD.

The Exultet is proclaimed; the scripture readings depict the unfolding history of salvation; the Gloria is sung and the world is illuminated; the Gospel of the Resurrection is proclaimed; there is a renewal of our baptismal promises and we will rejoice to witness the Reception of a baptised Christian adult into Full Communion with the Catholic Church.
N.B. At the Evening Mass on Easter Sunday a teenager will complete his Christian Initiation with the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist – following his celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation during the Fifth Week of Lent.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PROFESSOR MARY HEIMANN

We offer our congratulations and extend the assurance of our prayers to Mary as she celebrates her Reception into Full Communion with the Catholic Church during the Easter Vigil.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION PROGRAMMES

As we are still heavily constrained by the pandemic restrictions, we will be unable to arrange general meetings for candidates and their parents. The sacramental programmes will need to adapt to the circumstances. It is my intention to post some video presentations on the parish web-site to support home learning. Let us pray for our children and young people who are looking to complete their Christian Initiation. By their participation in these programmes may they expand their understanding of the Catholic faith and deepen their commitment in service to our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2021 COHORT FOR THE SACRAMENTS OF RECONCILIATION AND HOLY EUCHARIST

The relevant information document can still be collected after Mass or at The Priory. It has also been incorporated into this newsletter so that you can print it out at home if you so wish. When this is completed I would ask all parents of potential candidates to either telephone or e.mail me (Canon Collins) to arrange a time when the document can be delivered in person to The Priory and catechetical resources can be collected.

2020 AND 2021 COHORTS FOR THE SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

SOME REFERENCES FROM SCRIPTURE AND THE CATECHISM

“Now when the Apostles at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John, who came down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit; for it had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptised in the name of the Lord Jesus. Then they laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.” Acts 8:14-17.

Confirmation perfects Baptismal grace; it is the sacrament which gives the Holy Spirit in order to root us more deeply in the divine filiation, incorporating us more firmly into Christ, strengthen our bond with the Church, associate us more closely with her mission, and help us bear witness to the Christian faith in words accompanied by deeds.

Confirmation, like Baptism, imprints a spiritual mark or indelible character on the Christian’s soul; for this reason, one can receive this sacrament only once in one’s life.

The Prayer of Confirmation invokes the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in these words: All-powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life. Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide. Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right-judgement and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence. Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A REFLECTION FOR THE CONFIRMANDS

C.S.Lewis is a well-known literary figure of the last century, a Tutor at Oxford and later a Professor at Cambridge. Apart from his academic career, he is best known as the author of the Chronicles of Narnia which I hope many of you have read. Lewis lost his faith when young, following the death of his Mother. Twenty years later he re-discovered the faith he had lost and became a great ‘apologist’ – proclaiming and explaining the Christian faith through his writings and public speaking. He was a member of the Anglican Communion. He was a great friend and academic colleague of J.R.R.Tolkien, who was Catholic. During the Second World War (1942), C.S.Lewis broadcast on B.B.C. Radio a series of fifteen talks on Christianity.

There is a famous extract from his second address that challenges his listeners to understand the central ingredient of the Christian faith. This is what he said:

“I’m trying here to prevent you from saying the really silly that that people often say about Him (Jesus): ‘I’m ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don’t accept his claim to be God.’ That’s the one thing you mustn’t say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said wouldn’t be a great moral teacher. He’d be either a lunatic – on a level with the man who says he’s a poached egg – or the Devil of Hell. Of course, you can take the line of saying He didn’t say these things, but His followers invented them. But that’s only shifting the difficulty. They were Jews too: the last people who would invent such a thing, the people who had never said anything of the sort about Moses or Elijah. That theory only saddles you with twelve inexplicable lunatics instead of one. We can’t get out of it that way. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God: or else a madman: or something worse. You can shut Him up for a fool; you can spit at Him as a demon; or you can fall at His feet and call Him Lord and God. But don’t come to Him with any patronizing nonsense about His being a great human teacher. He hasn’t left that open to you. He didn’t intend to.”

As you begin your journey of preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation, I am asking you to be thoughtful and reflective. As you grow towards your maturity, physical and spiritual, you will need to enquire and undertake research. Above all I am asking you to explore, through prayerfulness, your whole relationship with Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour. The full outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Confirmation will complete your Christian Initiation but then you must develop your faith to its maturity over the course of your entire life. Be assured of my prayers and the prayers of our parish communities.

WHY NOT GIFT-AID ALL YOUR PARISH DONATIONS?

COPIES OF 'THE UNIVERSE' ARE ON SALE FOR £2.40

GIFT AID ENVELOPES FOR THE COMING FINANCIAL YEAR

Envelopes are available for collection in both parishes.

Please collect them from the church if possible.

EASTER OFFERINGS FOR THE CLERGY

Envelopes will be available in both parishes from this weekend. As you know, offerings to the clergy at Christmas and Easter are greatly appreciated.

Contributing to the Reaching Out Project

In order to facilitate the best possible accounting process, we would encourage you to direct all your contributions to the Reaching Out Project to the Holy Family parish account. I have had a meeting with Deacon Maurice on this matter and in order that the parish secretary can maintain an effective scrutiny of the funds being contributed, then the above suggestion provides the simplest remedy.

A NOTE FROM DEACON MAURICE

'REACHING OUT': Many thanks to all who have made donations over the last few weeks and to all our volunteers who have enabled us to provide food parcels, hampers, children's toys and food vouchers to around 100 families in need across West Cardiff over the Christmas period. We are now continuing this weekly food distribution programme for which we need ongoing funding of around £500 monthly so please continue to help if you can with money or food donations or both. Perhaps you may be able to make a regular weekly or monthly donation of £5, £10 or £20 - or more or less, by Standing Order? If you are willing and able to contribute with a one-off donation or on a more regular basis please contact me on 07747038274 or email: mfscanlon@hotmail.co.uk or Neil O'Toole on 07860647367 or email: neilgot@me.com Thanks for your ongoing generosity in these troubled times. God bless you all and keep safe and patient for just a few more months!

FREE LEVEL 2 COURSE – DIGITAL APPLICATION SUPPORT

St David's Catholic Sixth Form College is offering a free course in Digital Application Support. This is a great opportunity to boost your IT user skills, and is available to anyone over 19 as long as you meet at least one of a number of criteria. For more information, visit www.stdavidscollege.ac.uk/PLA. In the longer run, it is hoped to use Holy Family Church Hall as a hub to provide additional support.

A WORD OF THANKS TO OUR STEWARDS

I take this opportunity to thank our cohort of stewards at St Mary of the Angels and at Holy Family for their stalwart service throughout the year and especially during Holy Week. Their consideration and generosity have enabled both parishes to function efficiently. As I have stated previously, external voices have offered high praise for our protocols and methods of operation. We still require more volunteers to step forward for stewarding. If you are willing to help then please contact one of the clergy.

PRAYER OF SORROW / ACT OF CONTRITION

Wash me from my guilt and cleanse me of my sin. I acknowledge my offence; my sin is before me always. Psalm 50:4-5.

Father, I have sinned against you and am not worthy to be called your son. Be merciful to me, a sinner. Luke 15:18; 18:13.

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Saviour Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

O my God, because you are so good, I am very sorry that I have sinned against you, and with the help of your grace I will not sin again.

LET US DAILY OPEN OUR HEARTS IN CONTRITION TO ALMIGHTY GOD AND REMIND OURSELVES HOW ES-SENTIAL IT IS TO GRANT MERCY IF WE EVER EXPECT TO RECEIVE MERCY.

ACTS OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

A Prayer by St Alphonsus Liguori.

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as being already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

A Prayer by St Thomas More.

Give me, good Lord, a longing to be with You ... give me warmth, delight and quickness in thinking upon You. And give me Your grace to long for Your holy sacraments, and specially to rejoice in the presence of Your blessed Body, Sweet Saviour Christ, in the Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

PRAYER FOR WALES

O Almighty God, who in your infinite goodness have sent your only-begotten Son into this world to open once more the gates of heaven, and to teach us how to know, love and serve you, have mercy on your people who dwell in Wales. Grant to them the precious gift of faith, and unite them in the one true Church founded by your divine Son: that, acknowledging her authority and obeying her voice, they may serve you, love you, and worship you as you desire in this world, and obtain for themselves everlasting happiness in the world to come. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Help of Christians, pray for Wales.

Saint David, pray for Wales.

Saint Winefride, pray for Wales.

THE ANGELUS

V. The Angel of the Lord declared unto Mary:

R. And she conceived of the Holy Spirit. Hail Mary,

V. Behold the handmaid of the Lord:

R. Be it done unto me according to your word. Hail Mary,

V. And the Word was made flesh:

R. And dwelt among us. Hail Mary,

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray:

Pour forth, we beseech you, O Lord, your grace into our hearts, that we, to whom the Incarnation of Christ, your Son, was made known by the message of an angel, may by his Passion and Cross be brought to the glory of his Resurrection, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE MAGNIFICAT

My soul glorifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour. He looks on his servant in her lowliness; henceforth all ages will call me blessed. The Almighty works marvels for me. Holy his name! His mercy is from age to age, on those who fear him. He puts forth his arm in strength and scatters the proud-hearted. He casts the mighty from their thrones and raises the lowly. He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty. He protects Israel, his servant, remembering his mercy, the mercy promised to our fathers, to Abraham and his sons for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

NEW ARCHDIOCESAN PROGRAMME

The Diocesan Evangelisation Commission is pleased to announce its new programme:

Spread the Gospel: Developing a Missionary Parish.

The Commission has spent the year of lockdown creating the programme and then piloting, reviewing, and amending it. The Programme has been approved by His Grace, Archbishop George Stack. It is a seven-week programme, running for one and half hours via Zoom on one evening a week. The dates will be Wednesday, April 21st and 28th, May 5th, May 12th and May 19th, June 9th and June 16th 2021. It will be delivered by members of the Evangelisation Commission.

The Programme is open to all parishioners and clergy across the Archdiocese.

The new Programme will remind participants of the Great Commission and the basic Gospel message. It will cover a rudimentary history of the early church and will consider important messages from recent papal papers, how to give witness testimonies, evangelise non-church going Catholics with practical approaches and tools for building a parish team to evangelise.

The Genesis Mission will be an important follow-on activity offered to participants, providing the necessary skills for successful encounters.

For more information and to register for the Programme, please email Madeleine Walters at madeleine.walters@rcadc.org

The Cardiff Archdiocesan Thanksgiving Mass for Marriage 2021 will take place on Saturday 15th May at 11am, during National Marriage week.

The Mass is being hosted and celebrated by Fr Michael Doyle of All Saints parish, and you can join the Mass livestream via the All Saints YouTube channel

If you (or your parents or grandparents or anyone else) celebrated or are celebrating a milestone anniversary in 2020-21 (Archdiocese of Cardiff) please email your full names and the anniversary you are marking so you can be listed in the Mass booklet.

This Mass is being co-ordinated by the Archdiocesan Family Life Commission and, pandemic restrictions permitting, it is hoped that couples can be invited to represent their deaneries but this will be confirmed after Easter. All are welcome to join the Celebration on line and, during the Mass, all couples will be encouraged to make the Renewal of Commitment together at home.

The Commission would like to produce a reflective presentation for the Mass and so we would encourage you send a wedding photo, ideally taken inside or outside the church in which you were married, that you are happy to be included in a promotional slideshow that will be shared during the Mass and also on Archdiocesan social media platforms (please include the name of your parish including area/town). In addition, the Archdiocesan Building Resilience Team would also be particularly interested in photos of weddings that took place in one of our heritage Church's: namely St Mary's, Stow Hill, Newport; St Michael's, Pil, Newport; Our Lady of Peace, Newbridge & St Dyfrig's, Treforest.

Please email all photos and anniversary details by Sunday 18th April 2021 for inclusion in the Mass booklet and/or presentation.

Scripture Quotes for the month of April

'We believe that having died with Christ, we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him anymore. When he died, he died, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.' (Romans 6:10-11)

'The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them, "Peace be with you. As the Father send me, so am I sending you."' (John 29:22)

'Lord Jesus, explain the scriptures to us. Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us. Luke 24:32

'Jesus said: "I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for my sheep. And there are other sheep I have that are not of this fold, and these I have to lead as well. They too will listen to my voice, and there will be only one flock, and one shepherd.'" John 10:14-16
