MR ROBERT HANSON R.I.P.

It is with deep sadness that I announce the death of Mr Robert Hanson, the father of Deacon Elliot. As you will recall, Deacon Elliot returned home in November from his studies in Paris in response to the prognosis regarding his father's health. Mr Hanson was taken into Llandough Hospital three weeks ago and was last week transferred to Holme Towers Hospice. He deteriorated suddenly on Tuesday and died peacefully in the company of family members on Wednesday afternoon. We extend to Deacon Elliot and his family our deepest condolences and offer the assurance of our prayers for the eternal rest of his father and for the comforting of all who mourn his loss.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord,
 and let perpetual light
 shine upon him.
 May he rest in peace. Amen.

Easter Greetings

On behalf of Fr John, Deacon Maurice, Deacon Christian, Deacon Elliot and myself may I offer our Easter greetings. For the first time in three years, we have been able to celebrate the Liturgies of the Sacred Triduum with something approaching normality. We are all conscious that Covid infections still abound, though the effects of the virus are of course significantly reduced. We continue our journey of emergence from the pandemic. We rejoice in welcoming the eight individuals who were baptised at the Easter Vigil, together with the three others who were received into the Full Communion with the Catholic Church. May I take this opportunity to thank the many parishioners who contribute so much to our parish life through their service in the midst of our communities. May the glorious power of Our Lord's Resurrection bring its blessing to our parishes and to each and every home.

Resurrexit sicut dixit. Alleluia, alleluia!
